

A group of approximately ten people, including men and women of various ages, are gathered outdoors in front of a multi-story residential or institutional building. They are holding a large white banner with bold black text. Several individuals are also holding flags: one white flag with a colorful logo and the text 'S.V. 2013' and 'Association sportive', and several green flags with white symbols. The scene is set on a paved area with some fallen leaves, suggesting an autumn or winter setting. The building in the background has multiple windows and a balcony.
